Read before application:

a. Please make sure your arrival information on this form is correct. If your flight is late, or your flight is changing, please contact this number (647-830-6212) or leave a message or send email to acco@brooklyncollege.ca to notice us before you take off. Otherwise, there will not be someone waiting for you for more than three hours at the airport and you will be responsible for your own transportation from the airport to your residence.

b. You may find your accommodation conditions may be slightly different than your classmates even though you are paying the same accommodation rates. Room conditions are vary, however, students will always have their own room, bed, table and closet etc. The host family will also provide the beddings. Accommodation applications are based on a first come, first serve basis.

c. Please submit your application as soon as possible. Your arrangement is not guaranteed if you submit your application later than six business days before your arrival time.

d. Pay accommodation fee by term. Each term includes four months.

e. Please send your scanned copy of bank receipt and your Brooklyn ID number to acco@brooklyncollege.ca to prove your accommodation fee payment.

1. Refund policy:

f. The placement fee is non-refundable.

g. Fill out the completed move out and inspection application form and submit it before the end of each month. We could only accept your move out application on the last week of each month. And you have to move out before the end of the next month.

h. We will make a inspection after you move out. And we return your deposit if there is no damage. And it usually takes 5 business days to process.

I understand all the above statements, have asked for and obtained an explanation the points which may not have been clear.
